

Discipleship in the Home

Morning Time

What are some things that make you afraid sometimes? God tells us in the Bible “do not fear; for I am with you.” God is with you no matter what, even if you are afraid.

Ask your child what he/she is looking forward today. What worries does he/she have about today? Remind your child not to fear: God is always with us.

This week you learned Jesus changes lives. Let’s ask Jesus to help us see those who need to know His love today. How can we be aware of people the world normally passes by?

Driving Time

Do you see all the cars with people in them? Did you know that some people don’t know who Jesus is? That is our job! We must tell people about Him. Let’s think of someone we can tell about Jesus this week.

Talk about people in your life who help you and help your child. Ask, “How did Peter help the lame man?” Remind your child that Jesus changes lives, and He wants to use your child to help others this week.

Why do you think Jesus chose to heal that lame man? When we drive, it’s easy to be in a hurry. Let’s pray for the people in the cars around us. Discuss how Peter and John could have missed the opportunity to be used by God if they had been in a hurry?

Dinner Time

Do you remember how the lame man was begging Peter for money so that he could have some food? In Jesus’ power, Peter changed the man’s whole life by telling him to get up and walk! Jesus changes lives!

Ask each family member to share about a way his/her life is different because of Jesus.

Do you remember the story where Peter looked intently at the lame man? What does it mean to “look intently” at a person? Who did you look at intently today?

Night Time

Talk about things that you are thankful for. Tell your child that you are thankful for legs so that you can walk, run, and play. Thank God for your good health.

Ask your child what he/she knows to be true about Jesus. Remind your child that Jesus is all-powerful. He can change any heart, and He wants to make our hearts look more like His.

As a parent, consider how often you act in your own strength and wisdom. Share with your child your struggle to depend on God’s strength. In some ways, the lame man had already learned to depend on others. Do you think it was easier for him to learn to depend on God than it is for a healthy man?
