

Discipleship in the Home

Morning Time

-  Giving of ourselves is also a very important way to give. How can you give of yourself this week?
-  You've been learning about growing strong for God in your small group at church. What are some ways you have learned you can grow strong for God? (Prayer, Scripture memory, being a cheerful giver.)
-  Do you remember what you studied in your small group this week? (Being a cheerful giver by giving to God from my heart.)

Driving Time

-  When we think of giving, we usually think of giving money. But what are some other things we can give? Can we give food or items to help the homeless?
-  What did you study in small group this week? (What it means to be a cheerful giver by studying the story of the lady who gave her last two coins.)
-  As a parent, has there been a time you were blessed by giving sacrificially? Talk to your child about what this was like?

Dinner Time

-  This week we learned that God wants us to be cheerful givers. In what kinds of ways can we give to others?
-  What would Jesus say is a better offering, a bunch of extra money that you won't miss giving away, or your last two coins? (Giving your last two coins pleases God more because it's all you have. That shows you trust Him to take care of you.)
-  What do you think it means to be a cheerful giver? How does God expect us to show we are cheerful givers?

Night Time

-  Sharing with others is one way you can be a cheerful giver. What are some things you can share with others?
-  As a parent, talk to your child(ren) about what you think it means to be a cheerful giver. Are there examples from your own life you can give to help them understand what it means to be a cheerful giver?
-  Does giving always involve money? What are some other things we might give to help others? Is there a practical way we can do that this week or next?
