MAPPING OUT YOUR CHILD'S SPIRITUAL FORMATION

Key Question: What questions are your kids asking in each stage of life?

Core Concept: Foundational truths that help answer the key questions kids ask at different stages of life. These concepts shape their understanding of faith, identity, and relationships, providing a framework for spiritual and emotional growth.

Milestone Events: Key times in a child's life where the church and home can partner together to intentionally invest in the family unit. These often include elements of celebration and equipping.

Long Hollow Family Ministry is the partnership between home and church to equip families for a legacy of faith in Christ. We believe parents are the primary disciplers, and it's our job to help equip you to lead your children. Sometimes it's difficult to know what resources are worth your time and trust. These lists are not exhaustive, but we believe there's something here for everyone.
